

ANA MARIA SERRANO - Associate Professor - Institute of Education (IE), integrated researcher at the Center for Research in Child Studies (CIEC), University of Minho, Portugal.

She has a degree in Psychology from the University of Coimbra. She holds a master's degree in Early Intervention from the University of Cincinnati, USA, as a Fulbright Scholar, and a PhD in Child Studies, a Special Education specialty from the Institute for Child Studies at the University of Minho.

She is a professor in the field of Special Education, Director of the Masters in Special Education, Head of the Department of Educational Psychology and Special Education and a member of the National Association for Early Intervention (ANIP). Also developed a Master's program in ECI in 2000 at the University of Minho, one of the first Master's program for training ECI professionals in Portugal.

She is President of the European Association for Early Intervention –EURLY AID. She is a member of the Board of Directors of the International Society of Early Childhood Intervention.

She is part of the SNIPI North Subcommittee's Supervision Nucleus.